Letter from the President

The June meeting kicks off a busy summer for the members of SPSW. Many opportunities to enrich and expand your woodturning skills will present themselves throughout the summer of 2010.

Our 2nd of 3 mini-symposiums this year will feature multiple learning stations, eagerly staffed by members of the SPSW. Topics ranging from shop safety to proper photography techniques and pens to platters will be discussed and demonstrated. Ask lots of questions and take some notes.

We will have a table set up for "Showing" but we won't be "Telling" this month.

There will not be a wood raffle this month so save up your wood and bring it to the wood auction in July.

July 2010 is packed with several woodturning events and hopefully you will take advantage of them all.

Mark these dates on your calendar,

July 15 regular SPSW meeting.

July 16 all day class w/ Eli Avisera

July 17 SPWS annual Picnic & Wood auction

July 24 Woodturners of Olympia symposium w/ Allan Lacer.

We will be doing something special for a lucky member chosen at random

We are in desperate need of additional pieces for our Vendor Appreciation Project.
